Female dancers resident in Scandinavia or the Baltic states.
A permanent residence permit is needed. Minimum age is 18 years old.

How does the contest work?

The contest will take place Saturday afternoon on 22 November.

- If there are many entries, we will make a qualifying competition earlier, the same day, on the cruising. The dancers will perform to their own selected "Sambas de Enredos" (the music must be taken from the Grupo Especial in Rio de Janeiro or São Paulo between the years 2000–2014). The performance is maximum 3 minutes.
- In the semifinal attend a maximum of 10 dancer.
- The dance will be performed to LIVE BATUCADA with the group Maravilha do Samba conducted by Serrinha Raiz - Musical Director for GRES Unidos da Tijuca.
- The competition is held under the contest forms you find in the samba schools in Rio de Janeiro.
- Each performance is maximum 3 minutes.
- Dance steps are divided into two parts where the first part consists of dancing to slow batucada "passinho" in about 1 minute. Percussionists make a break and then begins the second part consisting of fast carnival samba, "Samba-Enredo" for about 2 minutes.
- 3 dancers advance to the final.
- The finals are implemented in the same way as above with two dance elements.
- After the final the jury award the winners.

Competition criteria

The jury is graded according to the following four criteria:

- Dance Technique "Samba no Pé"
- Creativity
- Charming
- Overview of dancing and performance in combination with the costume "a fantasia." *)

*) A great costume is a plus. But a good dancer in a simple costume is valued higher than a "weak" dancers in a high-class outfit.
